Miracle #33 – Jesus Raises Lazarus from the Dead

John 11:1-45

- John 11:1-4

Mary and Martha were sisters of Lazarus. They are first introduced in Luke 10:38-42.

- Luke 10:38-42

Martha was the oldest of the siblings and therefore was the basic housekeeper or supervisor of the home. She had the gift of hospitality and often invited Jesus to their home for dinner. While she was in the kitchen preparing dinner, her younger sister, Mary, was in the living room listening to Jesus. It was Mary who anointed the feet of Jesus.

- John 12:1-3

Jesus dearly loved Lazarus and his sisters. Because of their close friendship, Mary and Martha knew they could call on Jesus when their brother, Lazarus, had become sick. They sent a message to Jesus informing Him of their brother's sickness. Upon hearing of His friend's sickness, Jesus stated that Lazarus had become sick for the glory of God to be revealed.
